How has your current text affected you as a reader?	How has your reading process been improved or changed?	What personal connections are you making with your text?	What have you learned about history from your text?
How has your understanding of the complexity of human relationships increased?	INDEPENDENT READING REFLECTION MENU		How have you improved as a reader by reading your book?
What connections do you draw between your text and other texts you've read?			In what ways has the text helped you develop empathy?
What have you learned about culture or society?	How did your ability to choose your book impact your feelings about reading it?	What would you tell another student to get them interested in your book?	How has your book impacted the way you think about a specific subject or topic?